

Cristina A. Scatigno, Psy.D., LPC

Child, Adolescent, & Family Post-Doctoral Fellow

Office: (303) 442-4562 Mailbox # 1

Education & Training

- B.A., Psychology, Boston University, 1994
- M.A., Counseling Psychology, Boston College, 1997
 - Pre-Master's Internship, The Institute for Child and Adolescent Development, 1996-1997
- Psy.D., Clinical Psychology, Nova Southeastern University, 2009
 - Pre-doctoral Practicum, Nova Southeastern University, Psychological Assessment Center, 2005-2006
 - Pre-doctoral Practicum, Miami Children's Hospital, Psychiatry, 2006-2007
 - Pre-doctoral Internship, The Children's Hospital, Denver, Pediatric health specialty track, 2008-2009

Experience

- 5 years agency-based work, treating severely emotionally disturbed children and adolescents with complex trauma in therapeutic foster care.
- 6 years in private practice, treating adults and children adjusting to divorce and life stressors.

Specializations

- Psychological evaluation and treatment of children, adolescents, and adults with anxiety, mood, thought, and behavioral disturbances, including trauma, co-occurring medical illness, and adjustment difficulties.
- Psychological testing and assessment for cognitive, academic, achievement, emotional and personality functioning.
- Treatment modalities: Individual, family, and group cognitive behavioral therapy and psychodynamic therapy informed by attachment theory.

Licenses

State of Colorado, Department of Regulatory Agencies, Licensed Professional Counselor # 5326

State of Florida, Department of Health, Licensed Mental Health Counselor #6160